2 PROCEEDINGS

3 THE COURT: Good afternoon, counsel. This is Judge
4 Robart.

5 MR. HARRIGAN: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Harrigan.

7 MR. PALUMBO: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Palumbo.

9 Counsel, who is going to be speaking for the parties
10 today?

11 MR. HARRIGAN: Art Harrigan for Microsoft, Your 12 Honor.

13 MR. PALUMBO: Your Honor, this is Ralph Palumbo. I
14 have Brian Cannon and Andrea Roberts from the Quinn Emanuel
15 firm, and they will be speaking for Motorola. And Mr.
16 McCune, from my office, is also on the line.

17 MR. HARRIGAN: We have others on the line, Your
18 Honor. My partners, Mr. Wion and Mr. Cramer, Mr. Killough
19 and Mr. Culbert from Microsoft, and Mr. Pritikin from the 20 Sidley Firm.

21 THE COURT: All right. I would ask that we only have 22 one person speak for each party, since we have a court
23 reporter present and it's going to assist her in keeping
24 track of who is who. If you'll introduce yourself when you
25 start, and then she'll be able to recognize your voice after

1 that.

2 Do either of the parties have anything that they wish to
3 add to their briefing, which we've had an opportunity to 4 review and have some preliminary thoughts on about how to 5 proceed?

6 MR. HARRIGAN: Not here, Your Honor. We have nothing
7 to add.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Palumbo?

9 MR. PALUMBO: Mr. Cannon will be speaking.

10 MR. CANNON: Your Honor, Brian Cannon for Motorola.
11 Nothing to add to the papers at this time.

12 THE COURT: All right. Let me start on the easier of 13 these two issues, then.

14 As I understand it, Microsoft wants its bond to be 15 released, and Motorola opposes that. I guess that I would 16 start with this, by asking you to go back and look at why
17 that bond was posted in the first place, and that was the 18 request by Microsoft for a temporary restraining order, which 19 was later converted into a preliminary injunction. That was 20 a bond that was posted in connection with that preliminary
21 injunction, and the situation in regards to the injunction
22 was, it prohibited Motorola from enforcing an injunction it
23 might receive in Germany.

24 I have subsequently discharged that preliminary
25 injunction, having found that it was no longer necessary, and

1 therefore it seems to me that the proper resolution of this
2 question is, then, since the purpose of the bond was securing
3 the court's anti-suit injunction, and the purpose of that was
4 to determine if Motorola could obtain injunctive relief under
5 the H.264 standard and the 802.11 standard essential patents,
6 it seems to me that we have now determined that Motorola is 7 not entitled to injunctive relief for H.264 or 802.11.

8 And the court has further set the royalty rates to be 9 imposed under the license for those; thus, the purpose of the 10 anti-suit injunction was no longer necessary, and the 11 injunction was no longer necessary, and therefore the bond is 12 no longer necessary. So I am releasing the $100 million
13 security bond at this time.

14 Let me then take you to what seems to be more of your real
15 battleground these days, which is a discovery dispute.

16 I am obligated to express my displeasure that you all
17 seemed to have treated my discovery schedule as a suggestion
18 and not a court order.

19 I set the discovery schedule in this matter on March 14th
20 of 2013. Somewhat promptly, three weeks later, Motorola
21 apparently notes a 30(b)(6) deposition. On May 1st,
22 Microsoft designates Mr. Davidson to be a witness in response
23 to the 30(b)(6) motion. On May 9th, apparently that 24 deposition is taken. On May 16th, according to your 25 submissions to the court, Microsoft says that it is going to

1 provide no further 30(b)(6) witnesses. Meaningfully to,
2 apparently, no one other than the court, on May 20th, fact
3 discovery closed.

4 Since then you've had a May 22nd deposition of 5 Mr. Roberts, and a May 30th deposition of Daly. I'm not sure
6 if Roberts and Daly are a Mr. or a Ms., so if I've got the 7 genders wrong, I apologize.

8 On June 11th, apparently you met and conferred. On June
9 17th, you contacted the court and asked to file your letter
10 briefs, and those were filed on June 18th.

11 That is significantly out of compliance with the discovery
12 schedule that was set in this matter, and, frankly, on that 13 basis alone, I'm inclined to say that neither of you are 14 getting anything that you want.

15 However, because we would rather resolve matters on the 16 merits rather than on the arbitrariness of the court, I have 17 looked at the pleadings. Microsoft does not respond to 18 Motorola's contention that there are at least two areas where 19 there was not a witness responsive to the 30(b)(6) notice, at 20 least based on the pleadings you've given me.

21 First is a witness who could categorically testify of any 22 consideration of moving the distribution center prior to
23 mid-January 2012. The only witness who seems to have spoken
24 to that said they were not personally aware of it, and it
25 seems to me there's a difference between saying, "I'm

1 personally not aware of it," and a witness who represents the
2 entire company who will say it wasn't under consideration.

3 Secondly, Motorola notes that no witness was able to
4 respond to the item in the 30(b)(6) designation concerning
5 what lawsuits against Microsoft were pending in Germany. And
6 I've added the timeframe of 2011, 2012. Therefore, I'm going
7 to order that Motorola is permitted a two-hour deposition
8 from a witness who can respond to each of those two discrete 9 issues.

10 That leaves open the interesting question of the sword and 11 the shield, as you all have taken to calling it, and,
12 frankly, there seems to be a certain amount of lack of condor
13 in the briefing that you've provided me.

14 The representation is made by Microsoft that there was a
15 clear, definitive statement by the Microsoft witnesses that 16 there was -- it was their decision, let's put it that way, to 17 move the distribution center. And I'm noting on page 3 of 18 Mr. Harrigan's letter, found in the docket at 704, which 19 reads, "Davidson's and Roberts' deposition testimony
20 demonstrates that there is nothing of consequence remaining
21 to discover. They made the decision to relocate."

22 That's a flat out, unambiguous declarative statement.

23 The question to the court, then, is, how do you reconcile
24 that with the deposition transcripts in this matter? Let's
25 start with Mr. Davidson.

1 On page 61, he seems to be the low man on the totem pole.
2 What he says is, in response to a question on page 56, "And
3 who -- who ultimately made the decision to move the 4 facilities?"

5 "ANSWER: It would have been me; Owen Roberts, my boss; and 6 his boss, Brian Tobey."

7 That would be consistent with the statement in the 8 Microsoft briefing

9 However, if you go to Mr. Roberts, who is identified as 10 Mr. Davidson's superior, you get a much different answer. On 11 pages 40 and 41, the following took place:

12 The question was asked, "And then the decision to relocate
13 the facility out of Germany, do you know who ultimately had 14 sign-off authority on that decision?"

15 "ANSWER: That was -- I would rephrase the point to say it
16 wasn't a decision to move it. We were told, based on the 17 litigation, we had to move the facility.

18 "QUESTION: So I guess just to clarify, I understand your 19 team -- your team did not make the decision --

20 "ANSWER: Correct.

21 "QUESTION: -- to relocate out of Germany?"

22 "ANSWER: No. We were not planning to move warehouses in 23 Europe.

24 "QUESTION: That was a decision that your team was informed
25 by legal counsel?

1 "ANSWER: Correct.

2 "QUESTION: Okay. And who on the legal team made the
3 decision to move?

4 "ANSWER: Shelley McKinley was my contact."

5 The court is unable to reconcile the statement in 6 Microsoft's briefing that Davidson and Roberts made the 7 decision to relocate with the direct deposition testimony of 8 the witness. That's either a lack of understanding of the 9 witness's testimony, an effort to characterize the testimony,
10 or an outright misstatement, but it's going to cause the 11 court to enter the following ruling:

12 I will allow the deposition of two hours of Ms. McKinley,
13 who, according to the deposition testimony of Microsoft, was 14 the person who made the decision. You can't simply say, one,
15 we made the decision, when your own witnesses don't testify
16 contrary to that, and secondly, you can't say, "The law
17 department made us do it," without opening yourself open to 18 examination of what the law department did.

19 I will say that the list of questions that Motorola seeks 20 to ask is much too broad, and it seems to have little
21 significance to the question at hand. But since Microsoft
22 has opened the door to why the law department told the 23 business people that they were moving the warehouse, it seems 24 to me, as a matter of fairness, that Motorola is permitted to 25 examine that question.

1 So in summary, I've authorized a two-hour deposition on a
2 question that I assume should, frankly, not take more than 3 about ten minutes. One, a witness who can categorically say,
4 as the witness has implied, that there was no consideration
5 of moving the distribution center prior to mid-January of 6 2012, and someone who can discuss other patent litigation
7 lawsuits pending in Germany in the 2011, 2012 range, and a
8 second two-hour deposition of Ms. McKinley or someone else in 9 the law department who will explain the reasons why the law
10 department made the decision that the distribution center
11 needed to be moved.

12 So that will be the ruling of the court on your letter
13 motions.

14 Mr. Harrigan, any questions?

15 MR. HARRIGAN: No, Your Honor. I -- and I'm not 16 saying this to argue with your ruling at all, I'm not arguing
17 with it, but I do want to simply point out that the same
18 witness, Mr. Roberts, was invited later in the deposition to 19 clarify, and that was the word, I believe. "I want to make 20 sure I'm understanding your testimony," was the question, and 21 he unequivocally testified later in that deposition that it
22 was a decision made by the business people and not the legal 23 people.

24 THE COURT: Okay. We read --

25 MR. HARRIGAN: But I agree with you that the first

1 quote is something that should have been addressed.

2 THE COURT: Well, we read both of them, and it seems
3 to me that, at best, it creates an ambiguity in his
4 testimony, and if the law department wants to say, "We don't 5 have any authority over the business people, all we can do is 6 explain the consequences of their actions," you're going to 7 be living with that at trial. But that's what he says in his 8 deposition, and that's what the court is going to rely on.

9 MR. HARRIGAN: I understand.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Cannon?

11 MR. CANNON: Nothing from me, Your Honor. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: All right. Counsel, you have motions
13 coming up, you have dispositive motions coming up, and you
14 have a trial coming up. I would urge you to get this stuff
15 done promptly, because it's not going to change the court's
16 schedule, and it's not going to impact your trial date.

17 I think that covers all of the areas.

18 There's a discussion of efforts to mitigate damages, and,
19 frankly, I did not understand what Motorola was trying to say
20 in regards to that. It seems to me that, based on the 21 testimony, the record is that Microsoft made the decision to 22 move in response to what it perceived to be the legal 23 situation in Germany, and that really is the question of 24 mitigating damages.

25 So if you think that I've missed something in regards to

1 that, I'm happy to talk to you, but I think you have covered
2 that at the present time.

3 So that will complete the sequence of events or areas of 4 questioning that Motorola has raised today.

5 Anything further, counsel?

6 MR. HARRIGAN: Not here, Your Honor.

7 MR. CANNON: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. We'll be in 9 recess.

19 EXAMINATION

20 BY MR. PRICE:

21 Q Good morning, Mr. Davidson.

22 A Good morning.

23 Q So you are here to testify as Microsoft's 30(b)(6)
24 witness as to whether or not there was any 25 consideration of moving the distribution center in

CONFIDENTIAL

1 Germany prior to the January of 2012; is that right?

2 A That's correct.

3 Q So first, can you tell me, what have you done to try
4 to educate yourself as to whether or not there was
5 any consideration of moving the distribution center
6 prior to January 2012?

7 A Well, a couple things.

8 One: I've been in this role for roughly eight
9 years, so I'm pretty intimate with the space.

10 Two: I've spoken with the only other people that
11 would have ever potentially considered such a
12 situation; Owen Roberts, as well as Brian Tobey.

13 That's what I've done.

14 Q Okay. So when you say, first, that you've been in 15 this role, can you explain to us very quickly what
16 you mean by "this role."

17 A I've been responsible for distribution and logistics
18 at Microsoft since basically 2005.

19 Q And just so we have it, then, in -- in this 20 transcript, can you tell me, then, the roles of 21 Mr. Roberts and Mr. Tobey.

22 A Owen Roberts, at the time, was my manager. He was 23 the general manager of global supply chain. And
24 Brian Tobey was his manager; corporate vice president
25 of manufacturing, supply chain, and information

2 Yellow would be they're in the range; watch out. And
3 green would be they're at or above target.

4 Q Prior to -- to mid-January 2012, was there ever any
5 consideration of moving the distribution center to 6 Heinberg?

7 A To where?

8 Q Heinberg.

9 A No, I don't believe so. It doesn't -- doesn't ring a
10 bell.

11 Q Now, you told me that you were relying on your own
12 experience, and speaking with Mr. Roberts and 13 Mr. Tobey.

14 Did you speak with Ms. McKinley about whether or 15 not there was discussion within the legal department
16 of moving the distribution center prior to mid-
17 January 2012?

18 A I did not discuss with Ms. McKinley.

19 Q Why not?

20 A Because that wouldn't be her decision.

21 Q Well, the -- the question is whether or not there was
22 any consideration of moving the distribution center
23 prior to mid-January of 2012.

24 Can you tell me that there was no consideration
25 in the Microsoft legal department of moving the

1 A Yeah, they came to us and said, We needed to alert
2 you to what's happening with this litigation.

3 Q Because of -- because of the German legal system and
4 how it might affect your ability to distribute
5 products in Germany?

6 A Yes.

7 Q So my question is, then: Can you tell me about the 8 discussions within the legal department about whether 9 or not there should be a discussion and some
10 consideration of moving the distribution center out
11 of Germany as a result of German litigation?

12 A Can I -- I can --

13 MR. HARRIGAN: Excuse me.

14 Objection, unless the time frame is specified.

15 MR. PRICE: Yeah.

16 Q (By Mr. Price) Prior to mid-January 2012.

17 A No, I cannot.

18 Q How would you -- how would you find that out?

19 A I would have to talk to Shelley, I would presume.
20 She was our legal contact at the time.

21 Q Would you have to talk with -- if Shelley said, you
22 know, "My memory is really bad, I can't really
23 remember when discussions took place," what would you
24 do then?

25 MR. HARRIGAN: You're saying if she

1 said that? Is that --

2 MR. PRICE: Yes.

3 MR. HARRIGAN: Okay.

4 A That's -- that would, honestly, be my last point of 5 discussion.

6 I mean, I may talk to our other legal contacts,
7 but our primary legal contact was Shelley, or I would
8 ask her to find out and put me in contact with who 9 would know.

10 Q (By Mr. Price) Would you -- you understand that as a
11 30(b)(6) witness on the subject of whether or not 12 there was any consideration of moving the 13 distribution center prior to mid-January of 2012,
14 that you do have an obligation to try to find the 15 answer; right?

16 A Sure. Yes.

17 Q So I take it you didn't look at any documents, like
18 emails or anything, to find out that answer.

19 A No. I've scrolled some of my emails about Europe,
20 and I didn't see anything that would raise a flag to 21 me otherwise.

22 Q So with respect to Mr. -- Mr. Roberts and Mr. Tobey,
23 you just relied on what they told you?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And I take it you didn't look at any emails from

1 And she would provide back input as to whether or
2 not it would satisfy the requirements.

3 Q First let me ask you, did she come -- Ms. McKinley or 4 anyone from the legal department -- come to anyone in 5 the business department about this topic -- that is,
6 there's a risk of injunction because of German
7 litigation and we've got to consider our options --
8 was that done prior to mid-January 2012?

9 A I -- I don't recall the exact timing. It was -- it
10 was right about January 2012.

11 Did it occur prior? I actually don't know.

12 Q And -- and you understand that someone can -- can 13 talk about considerations about whether the 14 distribution center should move without actually
15 having the authority to make the move happen; right?

16 A Sure. Anybody could.

17 Q Okay. So sitting here today, can you tell us
18 categorically that prior to mid-January 2012, the 19 legal department did not consider the issue of 20 whether or not the distribution center in Germany
21 should be moved out of Germany?

22 A I -- I can't tell you if the -- within the legal
23 department, that the legal department themselves
24 independently considered that. I don't know.

25 Q And one of the things we got yesterday was that -- a

1 concerning that move?

2 A I don't know the exact date, but it in connection
3 with the various proceedings that were going on 4 around that impacted the Xbox 360. So it would have
5 been from the U.S. case through the German cases, in 6 the fall through winter time frames. That was 7 2011 -- wait -- 2011.

8 Q Let me see if I can refresh your memory, then.

9 There were some proceedings against Microsoft
10 that were initiated by Motorola on July 6th and 11 July 7th, 2011.

12 Does that sort of correspond with your memory?

13 A I don't know when the exact proceedings were 14 initiated, but it would have been after those 15 proceedings were initiated when I -- I became 16 involved through our litigation department.

17 Q How soon after the proceedings were initiated did you
18 become aware of them?

19 A I don't know.

20 Q Do you -- can you give me any estimate at all? Like
21 was it within a few weeks or -- or months or years?

22 A Definitely wasn't years.

23 I recall that I became involved at some point --
24 certainly some point after it was filed.

25 I -- I recall that in the fall of 2011, so kind

CONFIDENTIAL

1 of after the sort of summer period, we started
2 working on the ITC case.

3 Q The summer of 2012?

4 A '11.

5 Q '11?

6 Well, your understanding is that when Microsoft
7 filed proceedings on July 6th and 7th of 2011,
8 that -- I'm sorry, let me rephrase that.

9 That -- your understanding is that Motorola filed
10 proceedings on July 6th or 7th, 2011, that Motorola
11 sought injunctive relief?

12 MR. HARRIGAN: Object to the form
13 of the question. If you can specify the proceedings
14 you're talking about, that would help.

15 MR. PRICE: In fact, do we still
16 have a copy of Exhibit 1 from -- the 30(b)(6) of 17 Mr. Killough?

18 Q (By Mr. Price) So I'm showing you a chart --

19 A Mm-hm.

20 Q -- Ms. McKinley, that was prepared by Microsoft and
21 Mr. Killough?

22 Have you seen this chart before?

23 A Yes.

24 Q When did you see it?

25 A I saw it on Friday.

1 it.

2 I don't recall, again, what the exact date was
3 that I became aware.

4 Q (By Mr. Price) And I understand you -- you don't
5 recall the exact date. I'm entitled to estimates.

6 A I --

7 Q And so I'm asking you -- so I'm asking you, are you
8 really saying you think it's possible that it was 9 three to four months before you learned about the 10 litigation?

11 MR. HARRIGAN: Same objection.

12 Go ahead and answer.

13 A I don't -- I don't know when -- I would have become
14 aware of it at some point before we actually started
15 really working on it, which was the fall. I just 16 don't know when that was.

17 Q (By Mr. Price) You have no estimate at all? It
18 could have been October? It could have been 19 November? It could have been three or four months
20 before you knew that -- that Motorola was filing a
21 lawsuit seeking injunctive relief against the product
22 that you were in charge of?

23 A I think it -- again, that's when we started working
24 on it. Before that, I would have known about it. I
25 just don't know exactly when.

Page 33

1 A Okay. What I can -- I mean, what I can tell from the
2 string, from the bottom of the string, it was --
3 it -- it was some work that they were doing to 4 analyze a potential move of the warehouse.

5 And I -- I don't know what my questions were,
6 obviously, because they're not here and I can't
7 recall them, but it looks like my questions would
8 have been related to that topic.

9 Q To prepare to testify as a 30(b)(6) witness on why
10 there was a move of the -- of the warehouse, what did
11 you do?

12 A I -- I essentially looked at this document to refresh
13 my recollection around the timeline. And --

14 Q And "this document" you're referring to --

15 A Sorry. It's this document you've already given me in 16 evidence.

17 Q The Killough Exhibit --

18 A Killough Exhibit 1, yeah.

19 Q Okay.

20 A And I put some thought into putting my head back in 21 the frame of mind I was -- what was it? A year and a
22 half, two years ago.

23 Q Well, did you -- did you look at any emails from the 24 time period?

25 A No.

Page 34

1 Q Did you talk to anybody?

2 A Just -- just my lawyers.

3 Q And these are the lawyers in this case who are
4 representing Microsoft?

5 A That's right.

6 Q So other than looking at the chart, which is 7 Mr. Killough's Exhibit 1 to --

8 A Mm-hm.

9 Q -- his 30(b)(6), and just kind of thinking about it,
10 did you do anything else to prepare yourself to 11 testify as to -- as to why there was a move?

12 MR. HARRIGAN: Are you done --

13 MR. PRICE: Yes.

14 MR. HARRIGAN: -- with the 15 question?

16 Okay. Object to the form, if that it
17 mischaracterizes the topic, which was why LCA made
18 the decision.

19 MR. PRICE: Okay.

20 A In terms of preparing?

21 Q (By Mr. Price) So let me rephrase it.

22 Other than looking at Mr. Killough's chart from 23 his 30(b)(6) deposition, and just thinking about it,
24 did you do anything else to testify as to the reasons
25 why the law department made the decision that the

Page 38

1 A It could have been. I -- I didn't -- I didn't think
2 of that specific question that you might ask me.

3 I...

4 Q What would you do if you wanted to refresh your
5 recollection so that you could give us the most full
6 and accurate testimony as to the -- the reasons why
7 the law department made the decision that the 8 distribution center needed to be moved?

9 What would you do to try to be in the best
10 position to testify about that?

11 A If -- I think there's any number of ways you can --
12 you can testify from your recollection, or you can --
13 you could look at documents to refresh your 14 recollection, or things that were done at the time.

15 I didn't look at any of that.

16 Q So among the things you might do to make sure, you
17 know, you had the best recollection possible would be 18 to look at documents generated at the time; correct?

19 A That could refresh your recollection.

20 Q Or talk to people that you talked to at the time;
21 correct?

22 A I assume you could do that.

23 Q And it's correct that you didn't do either of those 24 things; right?

25 A I did not -- again, I did not look at emails, I did

1 not talk to people about the --

2 Q What --

3 A -- this matter.

4 Q Who -- what kind of documents would you have looked
5 at to refresh your recollection as to, you know, what
6 was -- as to the reasons the law department made the 7 decision that the distribution center needed to be 8 moved?

9 What kind of documents would be available
10 during --

11 A Documents would be primarily Microsoft -- we work a
12 lot on email.

13 THE REPORTER: Microsoft -- what?

14 THE WITNESS: We work a lot on 15 email.

16 Q (By Mr. Price) Any other way that, you know, in your 17 position, that you would have kept notes or have
18 files or anything else --

19 MR. HARRIGAN: I --

20 Q (By Mr. Price) -- that might refresh your 21 recollection?

22 MR. HARRIGAN: Before you answer
23 the question.

24 You're speaking now about documents that she 25 would have looked at to address why LCA made the

1 A The legal department advised the business that there
2 were a number of options to handle -- to address,
3 react to, an injunction; one of which would have been
4 moving the warehouse.

5 Q Did the -- let me ask you, did the business -- did
6 the legal department give advice to the business
7 folks as to what the legal department thought was the 8 best option?

9 A The -- normally the -- yes, the legal department
10 would give the business folks advice as to what the 11 options are and what the legal department's view is 12 the best option.

13 Q And in this case, did the legal department give the 14 business folks their advice as to what the best
15 option was?

16 A So I was the legal department and giving the advice,
17 and we looked at a number of options.

18 Q That wasn't my question.

19 You said normally the legal department tells the 20 business folks what the legal department thinks the 21 best option is.

22 Did you do that in this case?

23 A I don't recall that there was a best option in this 24 case.

25 Q So the answer to my question is -- is: No, you did

1 not tell the business folks who you, the legal
2 department, thought was the best option?

3 A I told the business what the -- I guess I would say I
4 explored with the business what the range of options
5 were.

6 Q And it's correct to say that you did not tell the 7 business folks what you, as the legal department,
8 thought was the best option in this case; is that 9 right?

10 A I don't recall there being a best option in this
11 case, is what I'm saying.

12 Q Did you rank the options?

13 MR. HARRIGAN: Objection. Asked
14 and answered.

15 Go ahead and answer again.

16 A I don't recall ranking the options.

17 Q (By Mr. Price) In this case, did the legal 18 department tell the -- the business folks the 19 advantages and disadvantages of the various options?

20 A So the -- the way this would have happened in reality
21 is that there were a number of options, and we would
22 work through each of the options together; me
23 providing legal input, the business providing the 24 business input.

25 And in this case, there -- there were other

1 any option.

2 A There would be multiple emails discussing situation
3 and pros and cons.

4 If there is one single unified writing -- which I
5 think is what you're asking me -- I don't know.

6 Q No. In which case, I want to clarify.

7 Are -- are you aware of documents in which the 8 legal department discusses pros and cons of an 9 option?

10 A There would be emails from me to my clients that
11 discuss, out of a legal point of view, pros and cons
12 to options.

13 Q And have you seen any of those emails in preparation
14 for your testimony today?

15 A No.

16 Q All right. Now, as of January of 2012, as of that 17 date, you were aware that injunctions -- it's not
18 unusual for injunctions to be issued under German
19 law; correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And you became aware by then of sort of this central
22 role that the German distribution facility played
23 with respect to the distribution of products in 24 Europe; correct?

25 A In that time frame, the January time frame, is likely

1 apply outside the territory of Germany?

2 MR. HARRIGAN: Same objection.

3 Go ahead.

4 A There was nothing -- this was -- this wasn't a unique
5 case that was somehow an exception to a standard rule
6 that I was aware of.

7 Q (By Mr. Price) And the standard rule that you were
8 aware of was that if an injunction was issued in a
9 patent case in Germany, that it would not enjoin
10 activity outside of Germany? That's the general rule
11 you were just referring to; right?

12 A No. I was referring to that I wasn't aware that this 13 was an exception to some standard rule.

14 Q I know you --

15 A I -- I'm not saying there's a standard rule that I
16 was aware of. I'm saying I looked at one case. When 17 I advised the clients on this, I would have been 18 looking at this specific case. We would have been 19 reviewing specific options around this case.

20 Q In advising the client, were you -- was it also your 21 responsibility to advise them as to the effect this
22 move would have on the distribution center, you know,
23 in terms of the future business, in terms of future
24 activity?

25 A So we knew that injunctions are -- are frequent in

1 Germany. And we -- I would have advised the business
2 on that.

3 Q Okay. And why would that have had any application to 4 future business?

5 A Having -- having your global logistics tied up in
6 Germany is -- foreseeably puts you in a situation in 7 other cases.

8 Q Now, and what's the reason that having your -- was it
9 logistical --

10 THE REPORTER: "Global logistics
11 tied up in Germany."

12 Q (By Mr. Price) Why would having your global 13 logistics tied up in Germany -- in Germany put you at 14 risk or have an effect on future cases?

15 A I think I've answered that. That's -- again, I -- my 16 understanding is, Germans are -- injunctions are
17 frequent in patent infringement cases in Germany.

18 Q Do you recall a response to that, anyone in the 19 business arena gave to you, Mr. Roberts or -- or 20 anyone else, when you talked about the potential
21 effect on future cases of having your global
22 logistics distribution center centered in Germany
23 or -- in Germany?

24 Do you recall any response they had to that 25 advice?

Page 76

1 A The response they had to moving the distribution
2 center was certainly one of hesitance. It's not easy
3 to move a distribution center.

4 We looked at other options.

5 Q I apologize; I wasn't --

6 MR. HARRIGAN: Excuse me. Have you
7 finished your answer?

8 Q (By Mr. Price) I'm sorry.

9 A And things such as a bonded warehouse is what the --
10 the business looked into.

11 Q I didn't mean to interrupt. I'm sorry. And I'm 12 sorry that my question wasn't what I intended.

13 When you told the business folks that having your 14 global logistics distribution center in Germany,
15 given the fact that German courts often issue
16 injunctions and it could affect your future business,
17 when you told them that, did they say anything in 18 response to you telling them that? Like, oh, we 19 didn't know that; or --

20 A No.

21 Q -- or, really, we thought Germany was like everybody
22 else; or anything like that?

23 A I don't -- I don't recall any specific -- I don't
24 recall that -- any specific conversation like that.

25 Q Wouldn't this be something that might be reflected in

1 emails; these kinds of conversations that we're
2 talking about?

3 A I -- I can't rule out that there could be email on 4 that.

5 Again, I don't recall the sort of specific
6 conversation.

7 Q You said that there are options you were -- that were
8 being considered in these discussions.

9 When was the -- a decision made that an option
10 that we're going to choose is to move the 11 distribution facility outside of Germany?

12 A You're asking me for specific dates again, aren't
13 you?

14 Q Well --

15 A Okay, let me -- let me try to give you an 16 approximate.

17 Q Yeah. The best estimate --

18 A Just what you're looking for; right?

19 Q Yes. Yes.

20 A The -- as the business was considering the options, I
21 know that I was providing them information on when 22 the date was that an injunction could hit depending 23 on when -- the court case, right, when -- when the 24 different hearings were.

25 And they had, then, a work-back schedule from

Page 90

1 don't know to what level of detail we went through
2 the Orange Book offer --

3 Q So --

4 A -- procedure, but -- or -- but I -- I -- I can assume
5 that, yes, I talked to them about an Orange Book.

6 Q Did you tell them that there was -- there was a
7 procedure in the Orange Book decision where Microsoft
8 could agree to a license at the rate determined by 9 Motorola and put those payments into escrow, for a
10 Court to then decide whether or not those payments
11 were reasonable and whether they should go to -- to 12 Motorola as opposed to some going back to Microsoft?

13 MR. HARRIGAN: Object to the -- I
14 object to the question as improperly characterizing
15 the procedure.

16 But go ahead and answer if you can.

17 A I don't -- I don't remember all the details of what 18 were around the -- the Orange Book process. And what 19 I would have told them at the time was based on what
20 I understood about the Orange Book process.

21 Q (By Mr. Price) Who -- I take it you didn't know much
22 about the Orange Book process before this case. Is 23 that accurate?

24 A I had never heard of the Orange Book process before
25 this case.

Page 91

1 Q So obviously you're relying on somebody. Who were
2 you relying on in forming your understanding of the 3 Orange Book process?

4 A We were relying -- the legal department was relying
5 on German counsel.

6 Q Anyone in particular?

7 A I think -- I think -- I think Freshfields was our 8 counsel on that.

9 Q So did you have an understanding that there was an
10 option through the Orange Book process that would 11 guarantee that Microsoft would not be enjoined from 12 distributing its products in Germany?

13 MR. HARRIGAN: Objection based on
14 mischaracterizing the procedure.

15 Go ahead and answer.

16 A I didn't -- I didn't -- the Orange Book -- the Orange
17 Book offer -- the Orange Book procedure at the 18 time -- I mean, I can't remember the details of how
19 it works now, but at the time, I don't recall there
20 being an Orange Book offer/procedure that was going
21 to completely resolve the issue for my clients.

22 Q (By Mr. Price) And did you have any -- do you have
23 any recollection as to why the Orange Book procedure
24 would not have resolved the issue as to whether or 25 not an injunction would be issued?

1 to do, I could only pass on what I -- what the
2 assessment was on that proceeding.

3 And my recollection is that it didn't -- it
4 didn't -- it wasn't a way to respond to the problem
5 to a potential injunction with the guarantee that we
6 weren't going to be enjoined in Germany.

7 Q (By Mr. Price) Is this assessment of your German
8 counsel in writing somewhere?

9 A German counsel would not have been involved in 10 advising my clients. I would have looked at whatever
11 German counsel told us about the Orange Book and 12 interpreted that and talked to my clients about that.

13 Q So two steps.

14 The German counsel's advice to you, would that be 15 in writing?

16 A I assume that there's written mails or memos on 17 Orange Book defense.

18 Q And your interpretation of that, relaying that to the 19 business folks, would that likely be in writing?

20 A On the Orange Book? I don't recall ever writing
21 anything about that in detail.

22 Q Obviously the issue of whether or not you could avoid 23 an injunction in Germany through a procedure would be 24 an important issue. Right?

25 A Well, that -- was that a question?

Page 95

1 Q (By Mr. Price) Other than the bonded warehouse and
2 moving out of Germany, what other options were 3 discussed?

4 A The other options that would have been discussed were
5 a -- I think -- those were the two main options that 6 were discussed.

7 I don't -- I know we looked at a number of
8 things -- I don't recall specifically what the other
9 ones were -- around sort of some importing/exporting,
10 if we could do something around that. That was a
11 little different than the bonded warehouse. That 12 sort of an option.

13 And I know that was -- that was -- those were 14 mainly the two options that the logistics team looked 15 at.

16 MR. PRICE: I have many further
17 questions, but -- but my time's up.

18 I assume you're not going to give me more time.

19 MR. HARRIGAN: Correct.

20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Anything further
21 for the record?

22 MR. HARRIGAN: Sorry?

23 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Anything further
24 for the record?

25 MR. HARRIGAN: Nope.

Re: Microsoft Corp. v. Motorola Mobility, et al. Case No. 10-1823-JLR

Dear Chris,

In light of Judge Robart's comments during the June 25, 2013 teleconference ("you can't say, 'The law department made us do it,' without opening yourself open to examination of what the law department did") (6/25/13 Hearing Tr., p. 8), and the upcoming ordered deposition of Shelly McKinley, we write concerning documents from Shelly McKinley's files. From our records it appears that documents were not collected or produced from her. We ask that Microsoft produce relevant documents in her possession directed to Microsoft's decision to relocate the EMEA distribution center. We suggest that Microsoft search Ms. McKinley's email from July 2011 through the end of March 2012 for the terms "EMEA," "Arvato," "CEVA," "Duren," "Venray," or "Netherlands", and also communications with Mr. Davidson related to any move out of Germany or threat of injunction, and produce non-duplicative documents relevant to the issues on which she was ordered to be deposed in advance of her July 15 deposition.

In addition, please confirm that the supplemental privilege log you provided on May 20, 2013 accurately reflects all redactions made to documents produced to-date on the basis of privilege.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Elanor Mangin

Counsel,

On July 15 and 16, Motorola took the Court-ordered 30(b)(6) depositions of Shelley McKinley and Jeff Davidson. Despite the Court's instructions as to the topics of the depositions, neither witness was adequately prepared to testify on those topics. For instance, both witnesses testified that, to prepare, they had either not reviewed any documents from the relevant time period (McKinley Rough Tr. 32:9-34:4) or only reviewed their personal emails (Davidson II Tr. 19:10-21) and could not categorically answer the question as to whether anyone at Microsoft had considered a relocation of the German distribution center prior to mid-January 2012 (Id. 23:17-254). Additionally, during Ms. McKinley's July 15 deposition, Microsoft served a 30-page supplemental privilege log. Many of the entries do not indicate the privilege Microsoft is asserting. See, e.g., 1823-WDWA-PRIV_0262441, 1823-WDWA-PRIV_0261992, 1823-WDWA-PRIV_0262700. Finally, several of the entries on the supplemental privilege log appear to be relevant to the Court ordered topic of Ms. McKinley's deposition, and therefore, were not privileged communications. See, e.g., 1823-WDWA-PRIV_0262575-576, 1823-WDWA-PRIV_0262586-602. Microsoft's continued refusal to produce these relevant documents is prejudicial to Motorola. If Microsoft is proceeding with its damages theory, we believe we are entitled to those documents and also a witness prepared to provide knowledgeable testimony in compliance with the Court's order.

Please provide a time on the morning of July 18 during which you are available to meet and confer on the issues above. If you have availability today, we are available to discuss it then too.

Thank you,

Andrea,

We write to confirm that Mr. Davidson's deposition will proceed on July 16, at 9:00 am. He will testify regarding the first Rule 30(b)(6) topic on which the Court has authorized a supplemental deposition. See 6/25/13 Hearing Tr., p. 9 ("a witness who can categorically say, as the witness has implied, that there was no consideration of moving the distribution center prior to mid-January of 2012").

Please also be advised that Microsoft is designating David Killough to serve as its Rule 30(b)(6) witness to address the second topic authorized by the Court. Id. ("someone who can discuss other patent litigation lawsuits pending in Germany in the 2011, 2012 range"). Mr. Killough will be available to start at 1:00 pm on July 15.

Microsoft is also making Shelley McKinley available to address the final topic on which the Court has authorized a further deposition. Id. ("a second two-hour deposition of Ms. McKinley or someone else in the law department who will explain the reasons why the law department made the decision that the distribution center needed to be moved.") This last subject assumes that Microsoft's legal department made the decision to move Microsoft's EMEA distribution center. As Motorola is aware, Microsoft's position is that this assumption is incorrect. The decision to relocate the distribution center was not a decision made by LCA, but a business decision made by the responsible business unit. Ms. McKinley will be available for her deposition following Mr. Killough's deposition.

Thank you.

-Chris

Chris,

I write regarding Mr. Davidson's upcoming deposition. This morning, you asked whether we are available to take his deposition on the morning of July 17, rather than the morning of July 16. We are not available on that date. Accordingly, we plan to proceed with Ms. McKinley's deposition on July 15 at 2 pm, and Mr. Davidson's deposition on July 16 at 9 am. Both depositions will be at Summit's offices.

Thanks,
Andrea

VIDEOTAPED 30 (b) (6) DEPOSITION OF DAVID KILLOUGH

July 15, 2013

Seattle, Washington

Job No. CS1699980

CONFIDENTIAL

1 Q And those same products, and perhaps more, were
2 included as of the filing of the case?

3 A That's correct. It would be a larger group of 4 products as of the filing of the case.

5 Q Okay. So on July 6 or July 7th, there was a patent
6 infringement case filed by Motorola -- or two cases
7 filed by Motorola against Microsoft, where at 8 least -- which at least implicated the accused
9 products of Exchange Online, Hotmail, Exchange Server
10 2007 and 2010, Windows Phone 7 and Outlook Mobile?

11 A Right. All of that software, yes.

12 Q At the time that those Motorola Sync patent cases
13 were filed in July of 2011, was there a request for 14 an injunction?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Were the patents that were alleged in the Motorola
17 Sync patent cases standard-essential patents?

18 A My understanding is not.

19 Q Now, in the hearing on March 16th, 2012, did the 20 Court announce the date by which it intended to 21 announce a decision in the case?

22 A I don't recall whether they did or did not. It's 23 certainly something that could be ascertained.

24 Q How would you ascertain that?

25 A I would check with outside counsel.
